Encouragement from God's Word "Of Whom the World Was Not Worthy" Hebrews 11:33-36

"They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated—of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth." (Hebrews 11:37-38)

Do we fit right into the world or is our faith deeply out of step with the world? Some people of faith from days of old won great victories through their faith. Others lived by faith at great cost, even to their own lives. The world was not worthy of them because they lived for another city, another world. Faith will make us different. Faith will make us stand out. Are we willing to live in that way? Are we willing to pay the price of true, genuine faith?
