Encouragement from God's Word "Painful Rather than Pleasant" Hebrews 12:11

"For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it." (Hebrews 12:11)

How do we respond when we experience suffering? As the Hebrews writer explains, all discipline and suffering is painful rather than pleasant in the moment. No one enjoys suffering. But suffering leaves us with a choice as Christians. Will we learn from it?
Will we be trained by it? Will we embrace it, trusting that God will bring about peaceful fruit? God our Father has a good plan to produce righteousness in us. Will we entrust ourselves to him, even when it is painful?
